Camp Villages

The second of three Camp Villages will be held this Thursday, July 12 at the Paradise range. Please come and support your club.

We have been asked by Elly Gorman to facilitate an Archery 101 event and a clinic for The Villages Sales Reps at the Dudley Range sometime in August. Is there anyone who might be interested in Taking this on? No interest right now.

Rich Powers gave a recap regarding the Archery in The School program which is scheduled to begin early in August. More information will be forthcoming.

All of the cardboard in the target room has been cut to a reasonable size and stored there ready for target patches. Please do not bring anymore cardboard until we runout.

Cruise?? We already have 11 couples that have made reservations. Details on web site.

There was a discussion regarding what topics would you like to be presented at show and tell after our monthly meetings.

There was a discussion regarding whether to give monetary awards to winners of the summer league or just have a party for the participants with the entry fees. No action.

After the meeting, a recap of last month's show and tell was presented by Jim Scheer and Jane Knoeck told of her shot sequence.

Refreshments and coffee followed.
